

New Hondo Owl Band Director Has Exceptional Qualifications

JOE LEE

Joe Lee, who was recently hired to the position vacated by Bob Lewis, comes to Hondo from Alpine, where he was director of the Alpine School and Junior High School for the past four years. In Colorado City, he graduated from high school there in 1938 and was active in the Colorado High School Band as drum major and as a member of the American Legion Band. He spent years in the U. S. Navy from 1940 to 1945 and was active in all matters of war during World War II. He was honorably discharged as Warrant Officer Machinist and spent several years playing in various ship's dance bands. Early in 1940 he was a member of the U. S. Tuscaloosa, a heavy cruiser that made 2 trips with former President F. D. Roosevelt. Lee received his formal educagraduated in 1949 with a Bachelor Science degree from Sul Ross and in 1950 received his Master of Arts degree. He taught 3 years in the Marathon Public Schools then moved to Uvalde for 2 years, taking the high school band in Uvalde temporarily while John Suchana was called to the Air Force Reserves. Lee then moved his family back to Alpine to accept the position of director of the Sul Ross State College Band in the absence of Joe Bellamah and also the Alpine High School Band. Lee is married to the former Jane Hendricks of San Angelo, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hendricks. They have two boys, Wallace and Robert, ages 6 and 10 respectively. Mrs. Lee is also a graduate of Sul Ross State College receiving her B. S. degree in 1949.

Lee is past President of the Sul Ross Ex-Students Association, member of Kappa Kappa Psi National Band Fraternity, member of Alpha Chi, member of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. He and his wife both are members of the Church of Christ.

Hondo City Limits Expansion Meeting To Be October 15th

Hugh H. Meyer, Chairman of the Planning and Zoning Committee of the City of Hondo, has announced that there will be a meeting of the Commission on Tuesday, Oct. 15 at 7:30 p.m. in the District Court Room in Hondo concerning the proposed extension of the city limits of Hondo to the East and South.

Due to the rapid growth of Hondo, it has been considered desirable by the City Council of the City of Hondo to extend the city limits of the city approximately one-half mile to the East and about 600 feet to the South. Meyer urges all persons who live in the territory proposed to be annexed to the city to be present. Since a large part of the population of this territory is included in this section in the north-east part of town, where Latin-American people predominate, arrangements have been made to have qualified Spanish speaking persons present to answer any questions which may be asked. As is customary in the operation of the government of the City of Hondo, all citizens present will be heard, pro or con, Meyer said, concerning the proposed enlargements of the city.

BRYAN HONOR GRADS STARTED IN HONDO

Sandusky, high school graduate of all 57-Tango, high man militarily speaking; James Sandusky, high in Academics, and Robert L. Head, Honorary man of Student Officers, received his Wings. Cadets received both Commission and Wings. Lt. Head and Lt. Brown will return to Bryan AFB to be instructors.

"Flu Cases Here Considered Very Minor" At Present Time

While some cities in Texas are reporting an excess of flu cases for this time of year, Hondo, luckily, has not as many as it ordinarily has in early October. County Medical Officer Walter B. Meyer says that flu has been "very minor" up to now, and the school attendance has stayed at an even keel.

School Superintendent J. G. Barry states that the average daily attendance for the Hondo public schools for September was actually 70 above what it was a year ago.

So apparently the flu bug has not hit the Medina County area. Football games have been called off in some central Texas towns and many school administrators have complained of attendance drops over the state. One Houston administrator thought some youngsters were taking advantage of the situation to play hooky, and especially since the world series had begun.

Some Health officials over the state are admitting that the Asiatic flu scare has been overplayed across the nation. There have been a few minor epidemics, but the disease has not been as severe as first predictions would have one believe nor any worse than is ordinary flu, which makes the rounds every fall.

Releases from the Texas State Department of Health are concerned more with general health, presently, than with specific disease.

State Health Release
Your general state of health can be a first line of defense against illness, particularly now that the season of infectious diseases is here. Resistance to complications of colds, "flu" and other illnesses is influenced by how you eat, sleep, exercise and relax before you get sick.

Food means different things to different people, but the net effect is the same: food not only supplies energy to the human machine but also provides building materials to renew body tissue.

Good nutrition is largely a matter of getting enough of the right foods. And since this is true, it is a good idea to take a look at your eating habits.

One fact about food that cannot be overemphasized is the value of a good breakfast. And a coffee break isn't breakfast! Many people find the demands of their job in home or office takes so much out of them they feel all used up at the end of the day. This is apt to be literally true, especially if breakfast has been bypassed.

Many times an "all gone" feeling in the late morning comes about like this: When you get up in the morning you've been without food for a good many hours. Yet, you may not experience a feeling of hunger. You seem to get along for a few hours on a sub-standard breakfast, but around 11 o'clock you can't wait for lunch. Errors in your work are most apt to happen at this time.

To forestall fatigue, to reduce errors, to assure yourself of a steady level of health, fortify yourself with a sure combination — a good night of sleep and a really basic breakfast, such as fruit, toast, eggs, cereal and milk. If you can't eat breakfast through lack of appetite, start now to get the habit of a good morning meal and soon you'll find you can not do without it.

Remember, too, as you review your eating habits to take a look at your ways of eating as well. The relaxed, pleasant meal . . . tempting, colorful dishes . . . quiet conversation are all tools for better health.

60-Plus Club Meets Here

October 6

Dr. O. B. Taylor was elected president of the Hondo Sixty-Plus Club, Saturday, Oct. 6, at their annual meeting. Floyd Slater of San Antonio is outgoing president.

Sixty people were present from all over the state to return to Hondo for a day. That night 41 of them had a turkey supper served in the First Methodist Church. Guests were Judge Arthur Rothe and the Rev. Harold Goodenough, both of whom spoke to the group. W. N. Saathoff also spoke.

Saathoff, 81, won a box of candy for being the oldest present and S. G. Carter received one for having come the longest distance — from Kilgore.

Secretary of the club is Ed Ney of Hondo and treasurer is W. C. Horger of San Antonio. Their annual meeting date is the first Saturday in October each year. A picture of the group is expected next week.

Nothing New On HAB Future Plans

Nothing new this week is the word as of Wednesday out at Hondo Air Base. There have been no visits or inspections from high officials, and about the only thing to be reported is that one official feels much encouraged by the tone of telephone conversations on the matter of maintaining the operation of the base.

SOMETHING MANY SAID COULDN'T HAPPEN — DID. This 220 pound stallion is the sire of an 85 pound colt, out of a mare that weighs 1125. The pony belongs to Ernest N. Bendele, seen here holding the colt. Albert Saathoff, center, owns the mare, named Maude, and part Percheron. E. A. Bendele is holding Snippy, the pony. The colt was born the last week in September, and is doing fine. Bendele says the pony has sired a number of colts, but that this is the largest mare ever used.

Library Books For HHS

School Superintendent J. G. Barry says that the school board has authorized the purchase of some $1000 to $1200 in library books for the Hondo Independent School District.

Approximately half of this will be used for the high school library and the remainder for books at Lacy and Meyer Schools.

Administrative Meeting
Hondo teachers will play hosts on Oct. 22 to a sub-district meeting of the Association of School Administrators, with teachers coming here from Frio and Atascosa County as well as from all parts of Medina County. A representative from the Texas Education Agency is scheduled to speak to the group.

A district meeting composed of these and additional counties meets once a month in Uvalde. The sub-district group meets six times during the school year and moves to various towns.

Medina Farm Bureau Sets County Convention

Calvin Hardt, Yancey, President of the Medina County Farm Bureau, has announced that the Farm Bureau County Convention will be held Saturday, Oct. 26 at the National Guard Armory Building in Hondo.

A barbecue supper will be served beginning at 5:30 and the business meeting will follow. Principal speaker will be J. H. West, vice-president of the Texas Farm Bureau, of Bishop. Hardt also says that a number of state representatives will be present.

Each member of the bureau will receive two free tickets, by mail, for the barbecue supper and others attending will be required to pay 50 cents per plate.

New Oil Try At Chicon Lake

G. O. Etheredge of San Antonio plans to drill a 1,250-foot test in the Chicon lake field about six miles northwest of Lyle.

It will be his No. 6 Joseph Lamon, and is located on a 91.5-acre-lease in the Rebecca Latham Survey No. 41. It's to be 300 feet west of the No. 5, 330 feet southwest of the No. 1 and 330 feet southeast of the No. 2.

Mission Band To Meet

The Junior Mission Band of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will meet at the church annex on Oct. 12 at 2 p.m. At their last meeting, the youngsters sang songs, made things and had refreshments.

EARLY BIRD POLL TAX

First in Medina County to pay a poll tax for next year was Charles E. Wurzbach, who paid the $1.75 for himself and for his wife on Oct. 1.

Not only does this entitle them to a vote in elections all next year, but it also shows that the Castroville couple does not intend to shirk the responsibilities that come with citizenship. This tax is not a fee charged for voting, but one easily afforded by all which is used in many different ways for the welfare of Texans. $1 goes to the State of Texas to support public schools, 50 cents goes to the State for the general revenue fund and 25 cents remains in the county as a levy to be used in holding elections, etc.

Deadline for payment is Jan. 31 to be eligible to vote in that year's elections. 26 people had paid up through Monday noon at the County Tax Assessor-Collector's office.

COMPLETES CHAPTER FOUR OF THE SANTLEBEN STORY

"We left our encampment about three o'clock in the morning and our detachment led the advance with a part of a New York regiment of cavalry in our rear. We were chosen for the post of honor because the First Texas Cavalry had the reputation of being very good horsemen. We rode about twenty miles before we came in contact with the enemy's pickets. They gave us a warm reception, and held us in check for half an hour, in which time about thirty of our men were killed and many wounded. After the first attack reinforcements of infantry rapidly advanced and a charge was made which routed the enemy. We pursued them about five miles, or until we were under the fire of the fort, and we then skirmished until our entire force was concentrated.

"Our troops were sheltered behind a levee and the enemy was strongly fortified on the opposite side of the Atchafalaya with their cannon commanding the bridge. The fight lasted about four hours during which time a heavy infantry and artillery fire was maintained on both sides. The Federal loss in killed and wounded was considerable, and I saw enough fighting to satisfy me, but I did my post without making myself conspicuous. My first shock was received when I saw Major Black, a gallant officer who commanded a battalion of Illinois infantry, shot from the top of the levee and roll down the embankment. The retreat was ordered none too soon for me, and I never afterwards was foolish enough to volunteer when a detail was needed, on which occasions I was always glad when my name did not appear.

"After the invasion of Texas was abandoned, the encampment at Moganza was broken up and the five companies of the First Texas Cavalry were stationed successively at Natches, Brookhaven and Baton Rouge. Subsequently, when the war was brought to a close, they were ordered to New Orleans, where they were joined by Companies A, B and C, that had been left in Brownsville. They had performed efficient service on the western borders of Texas under the command of Captain Zoller, and they participated in the last battle that was fought for the Union. The engagement took place the 13th day of May, 1865, below Brownsville, at Palo Alto, which is now known as the "White Ranch". It was not much of a fight, but it is worthy of notice because it happened seven days after the Trans-Mississippi Department of the Confederacy was surrendered by General Kirby Smith, consequently it was the last battle of the war.

"After the companies of the regiment were reunited, Company H, which until then was known as an independent organization, was disbanded and the men enrolled in the companies of their choice, otherwise they would not have been entitled to pensions and other emoluments of the service. I became a member of Company C, commanded by Captain Zoller, who now is a prosperous farmer and ranchman and resides at Waring, Texas. The regiment marched over-land to San Antonio, Texas, where on the 28th of October, 1865, the men were honorably discharged from the army.

"Before dismissing the subject, I wish to pay a just tribute to the character and service of my commander, and it will be appropriate to do so in this connection.

"Captain Zoller claims a long list of ancestors who were prominently connected with military life in Germany, therefore, he was instinctively a soldier and the profession of arms was not repulsive to him. He was conscientious in his views with reference to the political troubles that arose in 1861, and he not only opposed secession at the ballot box, but he entered the army and was active in defense of the Union during the great Civil War.

"His talents and qualifications recommended him for promotion, and as a captain of cavalry his superior horsemanship and gallantry made him conspicuous on all occasions where his services could be made effective. As an officer he recognized the fact that obedience was the first duty of a soldier, and he exerted himself to instill his principles into the minds of his men. As a disciplinarian he was strict but kind and considerate to those who served under him, consequently he won their respect and confidence. The estimation in which his abilities and services were held by those in authority was expressed when he was offered a position in the regular army of the United States. When he returned to the peaceful pursuits of private life he not only retained the affections of his comrades in arms, but he won the good will of all men and he commanded an influence that was felt wherever he was known. No man is perfect, but my friendship for Captain Zoller has placed a high estimate on his character, and I believe that when his life's record is closed few blemishes will appear to mar the purity of his existence.

"I returned immediately to my father's farm, where I received an affectionate welcome from my people and neighbors. I had been absent from home nearly three years, and many changes had occurred during that period, but none had taken place in my father's family. After spending two pleasant months among my old associations, I became restless and anxious for some active employment. As mail contracts were then being let in Texas I filed an application for the route from San Antonio to Eagle Pass and from there to Fort Clark. My bid was accepted by the Post Office Department and in January, 1866, a contract was awarded me.

"I'M GOING TO HAVE BUTTERFLIES IN MY STOMACH TOO, I SWALLOWED 3 CATERPILLARS!"

New Braunfels Editor Says

Presidency Is No Spot For A Military Man

(The following editorial is taken from the column Cabbages and Kings, authored by Frederic Oheim, which is a regular feature of the New Braunfels Zeitung-Chronicle. We feel that he has an interesting summary of the Little Rock segregation problem, and print it for your study).

Back in 1952, when I doubted out loud the wisdom of electing a man whose entire background had been military, no matter how great his success as a commanding general had been, and no matter whether his name was MacArthur or Eisenhower, many of my friends told me that I was slightly un-American in thought and probably had secret desires to see Stalin sitting in both Washington and Austin.

Now, when a president of the United States in just about so many words tells us that he is calling out the troops because our elected representatives have failed to "carry out the orders" of a Federal court, I again say that I do not want to see America placed under a regime which is patterned upon military orders and discipline. My grandfather Oheim, and much earlier my mother's folks came to America to get away from that sort of thing. If that is un-American, I'm going to keep on being un-American in my opposition to dictation under military orders.

Our Constitution does make provision for martial law, and whenever it has become necessary for a president to declare martial law, he has been held responsible for his use or abuse of the privilege. If President Eisenhower honestly feels that the Constitution of the United States is being endangered by mob rule in Little Rock he is doing right in calling out troops, but the final decision as to whether Eisenhower's opinion is correct will rest with the people of the United States, and that is something that seems to be incomprehensible to many officials whose training will not permit them to tolerate "insubordination" by anybody under their command.

Let's keep in mind one thing — no matter how desirable something may seem it is not worth destroying our pattern of life to force it upon people who are not ready for it. That goes for prohibition of alcoholic beverages, for integration of the races in public schools, for daily Bible reading in public schools, for abstinence from salt in your food, for vegetarianism, for nudism, for politeness on street cars, or any other thing you might sincerely believe to be for the good of the human race.

It would be a horrible world if you and I had the right to force our notions on everybody and they had the same right to force their notions on us.

All we can do is try to avoid hurting our fellow man, and the principal purpose of government and law is to assure equality of freedom and opportunity to all of us, black or white. Inasmuch as custom has barred Negroes from complete equality in the Southern states (and in the Northern states, too, when we get down to facts), we have all been guilty of injustice and it is only proper that we should move to correct our faults. People in Little Rock that have been beating up Negroes have broken the law and should be punished — by Little Rock courts and by their fellow citizens.

But to punish officials who have been obeying the law as it has stood on the books for these many years, and to declare them insubordinate to a Supreme Court that has reversed itself in interpreting the Constitution of the United States, is wrong as long as there is no law passed by Congress which declares their actions a crime. Until our elected representatives pass such laws, our officers must obey the ones we have, no matter what the Supreme Court "orders." When we lose sight of that principle, the America of our forefathers we have been cherishing so long will disappear before a dictatorship that enforces its order with bayonets.

PERSONAL APPEARANCE

BY JERRY JUNE BERGER

At the State Fair this past weekend, we saw an object which is causing so much fuss among the United States at present. It is a country satellite which is planning to launch soon, and which they had hoped to get off the ground before the Russians floated.

On display for all to see, this shiny object, about the size of a wash tub is a perfect sphere and holds four antennae pointing in that many directions. It shines as does aluminum, and actually looks quite simple until one studies the cut-away version showing all its "innards."

Already more than 100 million dollars have been spent on the object — this of course includes all the years of research that have gone into its final product.

Just when this country launches it is supposed to depend on the construction of a suitable guided missile to push it up into an orbit where it will encircle the globe as the Russian version is doing today. All this still seems far fetched to us, but the younger generation hardly stands in awe of it — they've been exposed to space suits and stories about trips to the moon as we were to stories of Red Riding Hood or Cinderella.

Sunday afternoon, here in Hondo, young JON BADER kept pestering his dad, FRED BADER, about borrowing his field glasses. After a while the reason came out. He wanted to look for the Russian satellite.

As always, there were many interesting things to be seen at the fair. Only in Texas would you see the engineer of the modern Monorail, which takes its passengers off the crowded ground and transports them to their destination, wearing boots and spurs. Honestly, he was. Our son quipped that maybe it helped him control all that horsepower.

Some of the custom-made cars contained hi-fi phonographs, TV stock market tickers, telephones and dictating machines and the husband particularly enjoyed looking them over — then again maybe it was those good-looking blondes who were demonstrating these fancy jobs that he was looking over.

Among the miscellaneous were baby beds which automatically start rocking when the baby cries. It seems that they are electronically controlled by sound and the sensitivity switch starts the bed in motion the instant the infant yells. They do not give directions for what to do if the baby does not want to be rocked.

The show at the Music Hall that year is wonderful. It is "My Fair Lady" and BRIAN AHERNE and ANNE ROGERS are starring in this musical based on GEORGE BERNARD SHAW'S "Pygmalion". The music and story are delightfully presented.

We also took in the latest Cinerama while in Big D. This one, entitled "Search for Paradise" was not nearly so entertaining as the other three were. As a matter of fact, we didn't see one thing in the show as pretty as Yosemite National Park in June, and LOWELL THOMAS traveled all over the world to find beauty spots to photograph for the show.

After last week's paper was out MRS. H. R. BURCH called to say that when they had visited Warner Brothers Studio in Hollywood last summer, they had seen part of the filming of a "Maverick" TV show and that daughter NANCY had obtained the star's autograph. We had mentioned in last week's column about actually seeing on television some scenes from "Sugarfoot" we had seen filmed while we were in the film capital last summer.

MRS. L. E. KOLLMAN JR. has received word from son JOHN WINDROW that both he and ALVIN HARTMAN have made the Rice freshman football squad, and that they are enjoying life on the campus more all along.

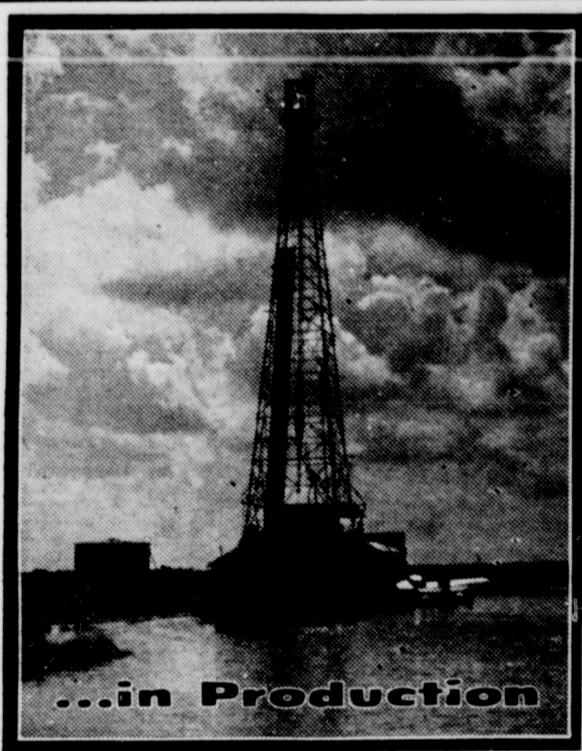

DISTRICT COURT NEWS

In a one-day session of district court Monday, Sept. 30, several cases were considered.

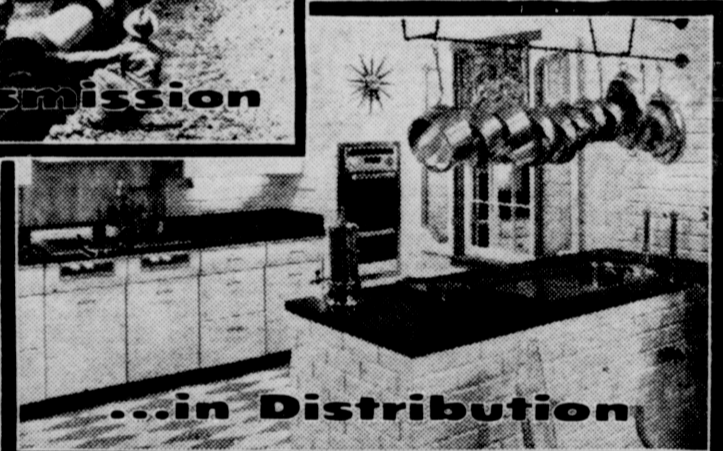

Lucio Dominguez and wife adopted a child, Estaban Ortiz Orasco.

Sam Haralson was granted a divorce from Annella Haralson.

The court issued orders in connection with defendants rights of Walter Speece to visit his mother's child.

Club Need A Speaker, Contact U. of Texas

Clubs or organizations of Medina County desiring top-notch speakers on many different topics are advised this week that they may contact the University of Texas for a guest.

The University of Texas operates a Speakers' Bureau to serve Texas civic clubs, service organizations and other groups planning informative programs.

Dr. Howard W. Townsend, Bureau director, has a list of faculty and administration members available to speak on their fields of major interest. Interest areas represented include literature, engineering, the sciences, speech, history, education, languages, business training, music, art, travel, health, religion, cooking, designing, social work and government.

The University itself, which observes its 75th year in 1958, is a frequent speech topic.

When a speaker is requested, the Bureau consults one who is trained in the particular field suggested and who can conveniently fill the assignment. His name and address are sent to the group making the request. Details of the arrangement are settled between the organization and the speaker.

Dr. Townsend said requests for a speaker should be made at least two weeks in advance of the date he is needed and should indicate the general subject on which the speaker will be expected to base his talk. No fee is charged by the Bureau, but the speaker's food, lodging and travel expenses must be paid by the group served. Payment is made directly to the speaker.

Request should be addressed to Speakers' Bureau, Speech Department, University of Texas, Austin 12.

Hondo FFA Scores High At Uvalde Tournament

Hondo FFA Soil Judging Team made the highest score at the Uvalde Soil Conservation District's Soil and Land Judging Contest last week in Uvalde. The Hondo team went to the contest for practice only but plan to enter the Revaldina FFA District Soil Judging Contest in Bracketville later this month.

The Contest card is divided into two groups. The first part determines what faults the land or soil might have to keep from producing top yields. The second part lists a group of conservation practices that could be used to overcome the limiting factors listed on the first sheet.

One Conservation practice that is recommended for nearly all field soils is Stubble Mulch and Trash Till. Most of our soils are low in humus or organic matter. The absence of humus causes soils to fail to take in moisture and thereby can not use all the rain fall that we have. This past harvest season found more farmers shredding their maize and corn stalks in their fields.

The Soils team that entered the Uvalde Contest last Thursday consisted of Balzen, who made a score of 330; George Koch who made a score of 315; Howard Saathoff who made a score of 290; and George Stewart who made a score of 245. The high point man in the contest made a score of 335 out of a possible score of 450 points. E. L. Abbott of the Medina SCS service worked with the boys on a field trip last week. They studied 4 test soils in preparing for the contest.

ELECT OFFICERS

The Voc. Agri. I Class recently elected Greenhand officers. Since each boy is required to learn one of the six officers parts they elected four sets of officers. These boys will make up the Greenhand Chapter Conducting Contest team in the Revaldina FFA District Leadership Contest here in Hondo Nov. 2nd. Some of these 25 Voc. Agri. I boys will be on the Farm Skills and FFA Quiz Teams.

The Voc. Agri. II Class and the Voc. Agri. III Classes will supply teams for Chapter Division Chapter Conducting teams. The Chapter Conducting and Farm Skills teams will come from the Agricultural II Class and the Radio Broadcast team will be supplied by the Agricultural III Class.

Medina Valley Soil News

Floyd Neuman has been elected Supervisor of Sub-District No. 4 of the Medina Valley Soil Conservation District. The election was held Tuesday, October 1, 1957, at 8:00 p.m., in the Devine High School FFA room.

Floyd Neuman replaces John Tom Kirby, who has served the past five years as Supervisor of this area. Mr. Kinley has served as Chairman of the Board for the past two years. Floyd is no newcomer to the Devine area. He owns and lives on his farm 3 1/2 miles west of Devine. He is, and has been in the past, carrying out sound conservation on his farm.

At the meeting a program was given by Mr. Gaston on how to collect soil for soil samples on your farm. Also, colored slides of conservation work carried out within the District were shown to the group.

The past rains have proved that a cover of grass on the ground helps prevent run-off and soil erosion. A majority of the grass is short, but even then it cut down on the water loss from run-off. Most ranchers report that they caught very little water in their tanks from past rains. It went into the ground and will be used to grow grass for livestock.

Now is a good time to plant your winter cover crop. In most cases there is sufficient moisture in the ground to bring it up. Some of the winter cover crops that have proved successful for this area are: Hubam clover, Austrian winter and Dixie wonder peas and Williamette vetch. To get the best results from your cover crop, fertilizer should be applied according to soil analysis.

To control worthless brush and establish grass for livestock, a number of ranchers are planning to rootplow this fall and winter. Some of these are P. S. Keller, George Wilson, W. F. Lamkin, Claud K. Jarman and Bill Bradey. Clarence Neuman has just completed plowing and seeding 22 acres of worthless brush land. After rootplowing and seeding the pasture should be deferred until the grass makes seed. This will allow the grass to become fully established before grazing.

Terraces have been run on E. R. Ballard's farm and are being constructed on O. C. Marquis' farm. Terraces have also been completed on the Milton Heyen, C. J. Monkhous and Sam Anderson farms. Terraces will prevent soil erosion and help put water in the ground for crop production.

To Help Town Friend Decide What Goes On Reckless Spending List

Editor's note: The Seco Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm wants us to compile a list for him, his letter this week reveals, but we're pretty busy right now. Dear editor:

A friend of mine from town was out here on my farm yesterday afternoon telling me about his troubles.

According to him, he has been trying to convince his family President Eisenhower is right when he says reckless spending is helping cause inflation, and he called a family conference to go over the situation.

He claims everybody in his family agrees with him, reckless spending ought to be cut out, this inflationary spiral can't keep going up forever, President Eisenhower is absolutely right, and every family ought to pitch in and help.

But it's when he gets down to individual cases he runs into trouble.

For example, his teen-age daughter says reckless spending ought to stop, but not until after she's gotten a formal evening dress, and besides, Mr. Eisenhower doesn't include that on his list of reckless spending items.

His 10-year-old son says he's opposed to reckless spending too, but buying a football suit, with a helmet and shoulder pads, is not reckless, on the contrary, it's reckless to play without one. Claims he saw a picture of Ike's grandson wearing exactly the kind of football suit he has in mind.

His wife says reckless spending ought to be stopped, but if she doesn't get a new kitchen range, the one she's got may blow up any time.

And the man himself said if he didn't get a new set of tires on his car, further driving is gonna be mighty reckless.

He says what he wants is a list of items from President Eisenhower classifying the things that constitute reckless spending, but I told him this country is depending too much as it is on Washington and the only solution is to work things out for himself. He said he could work his problem out, if he could only find an inflationary bank that's making reckless loans.

Personally I can't help him out myself. I've got more problems out here now than I can handle, but I've got an idea: why don't you sit down and figure out a list of all the items that constitute reckless spending and publish it in your paper?
Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Medina Valley Soil News

Floyd Neuman has been elected Supervisor of Sub-District No. 4 of the Medina Valley Soil Conservation District. The election was held Tuesday, October 1, 1957, at 8:00 p.m., in the Devine High School FFA room.

Floyd Neuman replaces John Tom Kirby, who has served the past five years as Supervisor of this area. Mr. Kinley has served as Chairman of the Board for the past two years. Floyd is no newcomer to the Devine area. He owns and lives on his farm 3½ miles west of Devine. He is, and has been in the past, carrying out sound conservation on his farm.

At the meeting a program was given by Mr. Gaston on how to collect soil for soil samples on your farm. Also, colored slides of conservation work carried out within the District were shown to the group.

The past rains have proved that a cover of grass on the ground helps prevent run-off and soil erosion. A majority of the grass is short, but even then it cut down on the water loss from run-off. Most ranchers report that they caught very little water in their tanks from past rains. It went into the ground and will be used to grow grass for livestock.

Now is a good time to plant your winter cover crop. In most cases there is sufficient moisture in the ground to bring it up. Some of the winter cover crops that have proved successful for this area are: Hubam clover, Austrian winter and Dixie wonder peas and Williamette vetch. To get the best results from your cover crop, fertilizer should be applied according to soil analysis.

To control worthless brush and establish grass for livestock, a number of ranchers are planning to rootplow this fall and winter. Some of these are P. S. Keller, George Wilson, W. F. Lamkin, Claud K. Jarman and Bill Bradey. Clarence Neuman has just completed plowing and seeding 22 acres of worthless brush land. After rootplowing and seeding the pasture should be deferred until the grass makes seed. This will allow the grass to become fully established before grazing.

Terraces have been run on E. R. Ballard's farm and are being constructed on O. C. Marquis' farm. Terraces have also been completed on the Milton Heyen, C. J. Monkhouse and Sam Anderson farms. Terraces will prevent soil erosion and help put water in the ground for crop production.

To Help Town Friend Decide What Goes On Reckless Spending List

Editor's note: The Seco Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm wants us to compile a list for him, his letter this week reveals, but we're pretty busy right now. Dear editor:

A friend of mine from town was out here on my farm yesterday afternoon telling me about his troubles.

According to him, he has been trying to convince his family President Eisenhower is right when he says reckless spending is helping cause inflation, and he called a family conference to go over the situation.

He claims everybody in his family agrees with him, reckless spending ought to be cut out, this inflationary spiral can't keep going up forever, President Eisenhower is absolutely right, and every family ought to pitch in and help.

But it's when he gets down to individual cases he runs into trouble.

For example, his teen-age daughter says reckless spending ought to stop, but not until after she's gotten a formal evening dress, and besides, Mr. Eisenhower doesn't include that on his list of reckless spending items.

His 10-year-old son says he's opposed to reckless spending too, but buying a football suit, with a helmet and shoulder pads, is not reckless, on the contrary, it's reckless to play without one. Claims he saw a picture of Ike's grandson wearing exactly the kind of football suit he has in mind.

His wife says reckless spending ought to be stopped, but if she doesn't get a new kitchen range, the one she's got may blow up any time.

And the man himself said if he didn't get a new set of tires on his car, further driving is gonna be mighty reckless.

He says what he wants is a list of items from President Eisenhower classifying the things that constitute reckless spending, but I told him this country is depending too much as it is on Washington and the only solution is to work things out for himself. He said he could work his problem out, if he could only find an inflationary bank that's making reckless loans.

Personally I can't help him out myself. I've got more problems out here now than I can handle, but I've got an idea: why don't you sit down and figure out a list of all the items that constitute reckless spending and publish it in your paper?

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

State Capital NEWS

AUSTIN

Gov. Price Daniel apparently is going all out to get the balance of his 1957-58 program adopted into law.

Special legislative session begins Oct. 14.

In recent speeches over the state Daniel has plugged for lobby control and a crime commission. More talks were scheduled — one on water conservation in San Antonio and another in Liberty.

In addition, the governor has made some outspoken statements on federal-state relationships. Excerpts from his busy round:

CRIME — Present criminal code, says the governor, "is so antiquated that it protects the convicted criminal more than it protects the public."

He asked for a state law enforcement study commission that would make recommendations to the next regular Legislature on how crime and highway accidents can be reduced.

Texas crime rate is rising faster than its population, 46 per cent of it by juveniles, said Daniel. (A recent FBI survey showed that during the first half of 1957 Texas has had an increase, up to nearly 10 per cent over 1956, in every type of major crime.)

LOBBY CONTROL — Opponents of this bill are trying "to picture it as a struggle between business and labor," said the governor.

"This is ridiculous... the bill would require registration of those employed by both labor and industry to influence legislation."

"Vast majority of Austin lobbyists are legitimate operators who identify themselves and honestly perform their work. They have nothing to fear from this bill."

Opponents of the bill, said Daniel, are "modern-day carpetbaggers who hide their identity and improper expenditures."

FEDERAL SCHOOL AID

"Full responsibility for the operation and financing of public schools should be exercised by the states and their political subdivisions."

Governor Daniel sent a resolution to this effect to the Federal State Action Committee meeting in Chicago.

"With federal dollars comes federal controls," commented Daniel. As a single exception, Daniel favored federal aid for schools with a heavy enrollment from U. S. military installations.

LITTLE ROCK CONTROVERSY

Governor Daniel suggested that both President Eisenhower and Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus had fumbled in handling the school integration problems there. Neither, he said, had "exhausted every means at their command" to avoid a violent showdown.

"Of course, here in Texas," said the governor, "we would have sent a couple of Texas Rangers to handle the situation."

BRIGHT FUTURE

Texans can look forward to more money, but a little less elbow room in the next few years. So says U. S. Sen. Lyndon Johnson in predicting a population of 12 million for the state by 1975 with a total personal income of $24,000,000,000. This compares some 9.5 people in the past few years.

Senator Johnson forecast a 1975 farm output of $2,900,000,000, up a billion from now, and factory production worth $8,600,000,000, nearly three times present production.

But, said Johnson, we cannot operate a $24,000,000,000 state on the basis of our present water use. The rosy prospects for the future will quickly banish unless we act to control our water resources.

"Texas," he said, "is a growing giant wearing last year's shirt. It's going to strangle, he said, unless there is quick action."

WEATHER TOLL

Cost of Texas' natural disasters in 1957 would be $12 for every man, woman and child in the state.

Latest Civil Defense Department reports put the year's toll from blizzards, floods, tornados and Hurricane Audrey at 61 dead, 638 injured and $100,000,000 in property damage.

Once again, said Department Director William L. McGill, Texas holds the "dubious distinction of being first in the nation in major disasters."

TB IN TEXAS

Startling facts revealed about tuberculosis in Texas came from Dr. Patrick McShane, head of the state's TB hospitals.

In a twin-panel session composed of newsmen and doctors, Dr. McShane reported that 22,000 Texans have active tuberculosis. One out of three persons has TB germs in his body.

"Texas spends $6 per patient per day on its TB hospitals," Dr. McShane advised. "And we rank in the bottom fourth on what is spent in trying to get them well."

SCHOOL PANEL NAMED

Way is clear for a new study into needs of the public school system. Six appointments by Gov. Price Daniel completed membership of a new commission created by the last legislature to do the job.

Daniel's appointees: Dr. J. W. Edgar, commissioner of education; Dana Williams, Gladewater superintendent and president of the Texas State Teachers Association; Ed Ray, executive editor of the San Antonio Express and Evening News; Mrs. L. E. Dudley, Abilene; H. K. Jackson, Gatesville; Felix Tijerina, Houston.

Six appointments each were made earlier by the Speaker of the House, the Lieutenant Governor and the department of education.

BUSINESS YEAR UNCERTAIN

Despite its present high level, Texas business faces uncertainties in ending the year.

There is little evidence pointing to any substantial rise, observes Dr. John R. Stockton, director of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Causes for concern: softening of the building outlook, slackened expenditures by the federal government and business concerns. Bright hopes: expanding expenditures by state and local governments, high level consumer spending, continuing population increases.

SHORT SHORTS

House Speaker Waggoner Carr is entitled to use capital quarters for office space, Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has held in an opinion requested by the State Comptroller. Salary for a secretary and expenses for stationery, supplies, telephone and telegraph also were approved. John H. Hargrove has been appointed chief of the staff services division of the State Insurance Department by Commissioner William A. Harrison. Hargrove was formerly with the Texas Research League.

REMEMBER WHEN

10 YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Howard of D'Hanis were the first ones in the county to pay their 1948 poll taxes at the office of Tax Assessor and Collector James R. Duncan when payment started last Wednesday.

Devine —Joe E. Briscoe, prominent attorney of Devine has bought a 20 acre tract in North West Devine which he will divide into city lots. The new addition will be known as the Windy Knoll Addition.

MICO —A Mormon Camp was located beside the Medina River above the Lockhart home before the dam was built. One of the old timers from that section was in the office the other day and was describing the camp. When the dam was built there remained an old rock house with a large chimney, and since the lake is lower than it has been in many years, the old chimney is now showing above the water.

20 YEARS AGO

Believe it or not, the unusual does happen. And in happening it sometimes leaves one wondering what the world is really coming to. For the first time in all the years of his experience in and about the Sheriff's office, Sheriff Chas. J. Schuehle reports three women and only one man in Jail! We had noticed the propensity of lovely women to preempt the privileges formerly claimed only by men but hardly expected it to so soon be his propensity for breaking into jail!

Devine —The cafeteria in the new school building will be opened to the pupils of the school Monday, October 4. Plans have been underway for sometime but the lack of equipment has prevented starting sooner. Miss Lottie Garrett was selected by the school to manage the cafeteria.

People of Hondo haven't had as much fun with "Figger" since our days of "Raslin" with a multiplication table as we have had during the past week trying to remember the new combinations at the post office. We are still in doubt whether the final solution of the puzzle of how much 7 times 6 is and the discovery that 6 times 7 amounts to the same thing was a greater triumph than will be re-

30 YEARS AGO

The Hondo Lumber Company continues to improve. This week ground was broken for a new and up to date office building for the firm. The building will be located on the corner, opposite the Colonial Theatre, will be of brick with a plate glass front and will be 24 x 50 feet.

As we go to press Friday, intermittent showers are falling and it is hot, sultry weather. It is hoped a good rain will come before the weather clears.

Arthur H. Rothe, county surveyor was in town Thursday from his Seco ranch on official business. Mr. Rothe says his section got very little rain the past week.

40 YEARS AGO

The football boys of West Texas Military Academy met the team of Hondo High, on the gridiron last Friday. Final score WTMA 6, Hondo 61.

Medina County will do its "Bit" in the purchase of Liberty Bonds if plans of the local Council of Defense are carried out. Local committees are as follows: Hondo — V. P. King, Chairman, Horace Bradley, H. F. King, D. W. Short, C. W. Gilliam and O. H. Miller. Devine —George W. Brown, Chairman; W. S. Lilly, M. A. Keller, A. E. Fretelliere and Henry Bendele. Castroville —Louis Scherrer, Chairman; Fritz Rihn and H. F. Wurzbach. LaCoste —H. C. Heilig, Chairman; Ed Keller and Frank Keller. D'Hanis —Louis Carle, Chairman; Jos. Koch and Pete Koch, Jr. Yancey —J. W. McCaughan, Chairman, J. P. Nixon, Dr. W. C. Cain and H. W. Butts.

50 YEARS AGO

John Britsch, the 14-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Britsch, fell from a pecan tree to the ground 25 feet below about ten o'clock Sunday morning and sustained a fracture of the left leg and a broken collar bone. His wounds were attended by Dr. Bradley and he is doing as well as can be expected of one so bruised up. The youth was fortunate to escape with his life.

Last Saturday night some unknown miscreant entered Mr. Jacob Reinhart's pumphouse upon his ranch on the Seco, and demolished his gasoline engine and pump and then destroyed a watering trough and a large wooden tank. Not satisfied with this, the fiend chopped to pieces the ranch gate as he left. The damage was discovered early Sunday morning and Mr. Reinhart came at once to Sabinal and phoned to San Antonio for another engine. We understand it will cost Mr. Reinhart $500 or $600 to repair the damages.

W. C. Beal has begun the erection of a new residence near Vernon King's place in the east portion of town.

Lawns Need Fertilizer Before First Frost

A beautiful, well-kept lawn adds to the material value of a home and is a basic requirement for an attractive yard. A properly established and well-managed turf also provides a cool, restful cover and prevents soil blowing and washing.

Fertilization is the main practice to emphasize in the fall care for lawns, says E. M. Trew, extension agronomist. Lawn grasses will go into the winter in a vigorous condition if they are well nourished. The grasses will remain green longer in the fall and will grow off earlier next spring.

The fertilizer should be applied about a month before the first expected frost, advises Trew. When summer grasses are pushed into lush growth by late fertilization, some grass may be damaged by a hard freeze. Also, applying the fertilizer too late prevents the grass from getting the most out of it before going dormant.

Apply a complete fertilizer with a 2-1-1 or 1-1-1 ratio at a rate to supply two pounds of actual nitrogen per 1,000 square feet of lawn, recommends the specialist. This amount of nitrogen would be found in 20 pounds of 10-5-5 or 10-10-10, or in 25 pounds of 8-8-8.

After the fertilizer has been spread, Trew advises watering it down. Soak the soil at least six inches deep. Plenty of moisture is necessary, for the plants can't use the fertilizer until it is dissolved. If the soil is already wet, just wash the fertilizer off the grass and onto the soil.

Ryegrass is sometimes overseeded on Bermuda to give green color during the winter. But, Trew says, this is sometimes harmful to the Bermuda. The ryegrass is usually growing in the spring when the Bermuda should start and unless the ryegrass is kept closely clipped, it often gives the Bermuda serious competition for light, moisture and plant food. If ryegrass is seeded on a Bermuda lawn, Italian or annual ryegrass should be used, for these plants die in the spring. Ryegrass should not be overseeded on grasses other than Bermuda.

Now that the dove season is open in the South Zone, more Texans are brightening their shooting eyes.

Hunters know the mourning dove is like a good halfback. He's shifty and he has a deceptive change of pace.

He's not as fast as some birds, but if you can hit a dove you can hit any bird that flies.

Here is a shooting stance recommended by expert shooters. First be sure both feet are solid on the ground, unimpeded by brush. The left knee should be slightly bent.

Now Do This

When the bird comes along, swing the gun along his line of flight. Shift your weight from right to left foot, and squeeze the trigger as you pass him, leading the bird just enough.

What do I mean by just enough? I mean that you don't zig when he zags. Also that you don't speed up when he slows down, or vice versa.

Seems simple, doesn't it? Why not try it sometime? But try it with a lighter gun than your father or grandfather used.

There are two big reasons for a lighter gun. One is that you can swing it more easily as you follow the bird in flight. The other is that those old 12-gauges get heavy along about the end of the day.

And nowadays you can do fine shooting with a "20" because of improved loads.

Note On Color

Hunters customarily have worn red to make themselves known to other hunters and thereby avoid being shot.

But now comes a color change because optometrists at two Army posts have discovered that yellow can be distinguished more easily and quickly than any other hue.

Red was one of the worst colors for being readily seen, according to the tests. The ranking was this way: yellow, orange, green, red, blue.

All of which makes me wonder if yellow is a favorite color for fishing lures because the fish see it quickly, the same as we do.

A friend of mine, who had great fishing success on a South Texas lake, not long ago reported that it didn't make any difference what kind of lures he used, so long as they were yellow.

The other day a partner and I were fishing on Lake Austin, and the only bass caught were on a yellow Lucky-13.

Guessing Game

You might follow through on this and speculate that bluegills readily strike golden larvae because of their color. But you would doubtless soon run into complications. For example, I took a fine string of bluegills recently, using those coal black crickets that have been so plentiful.

Talking about bait is a good part of the fun — but there's one conclusion I have drawn: I'll always have a few yellow lures in my tackle box.

Another tip about lures is to use light ones when the day is bright; dark ones at dawn, dusk, or night. Trying to figure that one out (at first thought it seems the reverse ought to be true), I reason that in dark waters the night sky seems bright.

And in daylight the blue sky is darker than the sun-filled, reflection-bright water. In any event you should use a lure that is easily spotted because of contrasting shade.

Fishing Best Now

Fishing is going to be at its best for the next few months. There are several reasons why that is true.

Most of the vacationers have gone back to work. This cooler weather encourages the fish and discourages the water skiers. And many quondam fishermen have gone to the sunflower patches for doves, further reducing the angling population.

Fishing is good in the Spring — before the heat and the tourists set in.

But why fishing is generally thought of as a summer sport, I'll never know.

For that matter, I'll never know why Summer is the vacation time for most folks. Spring would be a better time. So would Fall. Even Winter. Who wouldn't enjoy a couple of weeks off around Christmas and New Year's Day?

It's Being Done

But no—we take vacations in the Summer because people always have done it that way and we're too full of inertia to change.

For the same reason, I suppose, we wear a coat and tie in Summer because our forebears in England—where I took a nap on the afternoon of July 24 one year and missed the whole warm season.

Anyway, most anglers will agree that Texas fishing in the hot summer months is poor. A lot of anglers won't even try it. They hang up their rods until October comes.

A lot of us keep trying. I know a place where you can always catch gaspergou in July. I know another place where your chances are good to get a string of white and black bass in July and August. Sometimes the trotliners get catfish.

Then, there's always the coast where, if they don't actually bite every day, they do bite some days. And if you hit a good one you're in.

But Fall's the time for the best and biggest fish.

Farm Truck License Law Is Clarified

The Texas Highway Department reports that there seems to be some misunderstanding in regard to the law passed by the last legislature concerning legal uses of vehicles bearing Farm Licenses.

It is still unlawful to use such vehicles in connection with other gainful employment. The new law does allow them to be used for various trips and errands that are incidental to the usual farm family life. These uses are such as passenger service for the family to church or school, to the doctor, etc.

Simply because an owner has a rural address does not entitle him to use a Farm License; the principal use of the vehicle must still be in direct connection with the operation of a farm or ranch. The penalty for violation of this law is a fine of from $25 to $150, according to the Texas Highway Department.

Tigers Romp Over Owls

By Georg Gaston

It was a deeply disappointed flock of Owls that returned from a lost safari into Tigerland Friday night as Floresville, paced by Tailback Chris Kuykendall's all-around performance, clawed their way from behind to gain victory, 20-12.

Kuykendall, handling the pigskin on over 75 per cent of the plays from the Floresville spread formation, managed for 194 yards in 30 tries, added 68 yards on four completions through the air lanes, and rung up two of the Tiger touchdowns following 20 and 55 yard runs. The latter, of the twisting, turning variety, came with but 35 seconds remaining and sewed up the contest. Six minutes earlier 140 pound Billy Freida had slipped through the line and sped 40 yards to put the Tigers in front for the first time in the ball game. The Owl defense dominated the first half and the third quarter except for one scoring thrust, pretty well, but when the latch on the Tiger TD cage slipped midway in the last period, Kuykendall and the rest of the cats went wild and raced ahead to stay before order could be restored.

But all was not lost as there were several light rays shining through the clouds of disappointment after the losing battle. Ringing up perhaps their finest game to date in the offensive and defensive categories respectively were HB Sidney Mercer and E Butch Smith. Mercer time and again bullied his way for important yardage while compiling 115 yards in 19 carries and scoring both markers; and Smith teamed with Co-Captain Gary Schweers, playing another fine game, to tie for the lead with 7 tackles per. Meanwhile Billy Potsavich furthered his record by again leading the Owl onslaught with 41 yards in 25 tries. Not least among his night's accomplishments was a great punt return in the second quarter to set up the first Owl payoff. He took the oval on his own thirty, outraced several Tigers as he cut for the sideline, turned the corner and 63 yards, two crushing blocks by Bernie Zerr and John Henry Meyer later was caught from behind on the Floresville seven. However, Mercer swept right on the next play to put the Owls into a lead which they enjoyed until the Tiger rally.

Castro Comets Defeat Fredericksburg Indians,

By Gerald W. Kempf

CASTROVILLE — The St. Louis Comets traveled to Fredericksburg Saturday night for their first Academic League game and returned home with a 20-0 victory over the St. Mary's Indians. The win was the Comets' fourth of the season against no defeats.

The Comets had to use a strong second half once again to chalk up the win as they scored twice in the third period and once in the fourth.

The first half of the contest was scoreless as both teams displayed terrific defensive power. Neither team threatened seriously in the first half. Two costly fumbles kept the Comets from rolling too far. However, a 23 yard pass from Quarterback Carl Mangold to left end Virgil Boehme and a couple of fine runs by Mangold highlighted the Comet offensive machine in the first half.

The Comets came out determined in the second half and picked up their first score three minutes deep in the third period. Linebacker Tommy Boehme intercepted an Indian pass on the Indian 15 yard line. Tailback Royce Groff picked up a first down to the two and Fullback Bobby Tschirhart banged over for the touchdown. Arthur Espino booted the extra point and the Comets led 7-0.

St. Louis tallied again in the closing minutes of the third period. The Comets took over on downs on their own 12 yard line. Groff, Mangold and Tschirhart moved the ball to the Indian 40 yard line on nice running plays. From that point Groff sprinted over for the score behind beautiful blocking. The flashy Groff has now scored in 24 consecutive ball games. Espino's try for extra point was blocked and the Comets held a 13-0 lead.

St. Louis picked up their final score midway in the fourth period. A bad Indian punt went out of bounds on the Comet 40 yard line and the Comets took advantage of the break. St. Louis quickly drove down to the 3 yard line from where Groff punched over for the touchdown. Espino added the extra point and minutes later the ball game ended with the Comets on top, 20-0.

St. Mary's played a bang-up ball game in the first half, but the Indian line just couldn't stand up under the constant pounding of the hard-running Comet backs during the second half. The Comet line is to be complimented also for their sharp blocking and all-around defensive play, especially in the second half.

Saturday night, October 12, the Comets will face the big test when they meet the strong and highly rated St. Gerard's Royal Blues in an Academic League game. The Royal Blues, like the Comets, are undefeated thus far this season and have been picked League Champion Comets to give the defending Academic most trouble this year. Everyone is invited to see a good ball game.

of friendly Barry Field. From night in hopes of regaining the winning habits against the rival Devine Warriors. But one victory as town own defeats; but here the station don't tell the whole story as the losses have come at the hands of powerful eleven, with the margin being 20-14 losses. Pearsall and Del Rio with lone win a 13-7 decision over Del Rio. Leaning a star Warhorse offense should be Sollock, Don Ridgeway, and Van Damme with David Dole remaining a threat in the catching field. All which prove nothing as this game through the years established standard for wide open football with complete disregard for pre-bame choice.

HOOTS

Thursday night the Hondo Hoots forged ahead their season record to 2 and 1 while smothering the 20-0. The Hoots lead by the winning of FB Julian Tjerna, the around play of HB Dale La-burg, and the whole Hoot clearly outclassed the visitors. Coach Bob Nations freely admitted throughout the game. While the home forward wall outcharging the Dilley line, La-burg was sparking the "Hoots" with two interceptions. First an a-la Willie Mays by and a 20 yard TD and then was running for the first and scores of 5 and 15 yards.
